1. On 27 October 1946 CHEN Chi-yuan (陳其瑗), Communist propaganda agent in Hongkong, held a meeting at the Liu Kuo Hotel (六國飯店). Invitations were sent to all prominent schools, business houses, societies and clubs having connections with the Communists. Topics discussed included: immediate withdrawal of American troops from China, the return to China of Hongkong and Kowloon, cessation of hostilities in China, and cooperation with Chinese students abroad.
